

Marshfield keeps Wolverines from clinching title

Published: Friday, February 16, 2007, Register Guard

COOS BAY - Taylor Scott scored 10 points, Moriah Roberge added nine and Marshfield defeated Willamette 45-40 on Thursday to keep the Wolverines from clinching the Midwestern League girls basketball title.

Melanie Stout made two free throws with 1.5 seconds remaining to put the Pirates out of Willamette's reach.

Ashley Smith scored 17 points and Danielle Bellando added 15 to lead Willamette. Bellando scored 11 points in the second half.

Smith missed a tying three-pointer with two seconds remaining, and Stout rebounded before being fouled.